

Jesus Made 2 Ways for You to Avoid the Tribulation

Get Right With Your God

Your best plan is to be one of God's raptured people during this period. I highly recommend you go to your knees and get right with your God. Tell Him you know you are a sinner and you are sorry for every wrong you have ever done. You must admit verbally, either out loud or inside yourself, that you accept God and His plan for your salvation.

"NONE are righteous, no not one." The best you can ever be is a step ladder and you need a skyscraper in the form of the wonderful gift of His son, Jesus.

"If you are offering your gift (yourself) at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar(don't change your mind). First go and be reconciled to your brother (even if he doesn't forgive you, make the attempt), then come and offer your gift."

What God Put Himself Through For You

The following verses describe what God put himself through for LOVE OF YOU during the crucifixion of His earthly body.

They put a purple robe on Him, then twisted together a crown of long thorns and crammed it down onto His head. Again and again they struck Him on the head with a staff and spit on Him.

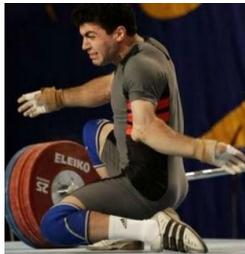

“I offered my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard; I did not hide my face from mocking and spitting.”

There were many who were appalled at Him—His appearance was so disfigured, beyond that of any man, and His form marred beyond human likeness.

“I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint.”

Dislocation

“My heart has turned to wax; it has melted away within me. My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me in the dust of death.

Dogs have surrounded me; a band of evil men has encircled me, they have pierced my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me. They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.”

Roman Soldiers Cast Lots For Jesus Clothing

Is it any wonder He had trouble carrying the cross with dislocated bones? Is it any wonder people had trouble recognizing the Lord afterward with His face so badly damaged and His form marred beyond human likeness? If people could see the nail marks and the place where the spear entered His side, the other wounds to His head and face would have still been there.

God’s Faithful Witness

If you want to see the look of agony on the face of your Lord when He paid for your sins and purchased you, look at the agonized face of the man in the moon. (“...the moon, my faithful witness in the sky!”)

His right cheek (on the left as you look at it) shows the damage done when the rod hit Him and His beard was pulled out. His right eye (on the left as you look at it) looks like hamburger. Multiple damage areas surround his left eye (on the right as you look at it). Something is very wrong with His mouth and nose.

Agony Reminder

The Cost of Our Sins – Yes, It IS Hurting Someone

If someone asks Him, “What are these wounds on your body?” He will answer, “The wounds I was given at the house of my friends (Israel).”

Establish a Deeply Personal Relationship With Him

Pray all day, every day. Tell Him your every thought, hope, wish, fear and yearning. We are to pray as if everything is up to God, and work as if everything depends on us.

The most terrible words God could ever say is, “I never knew you”.

God is the only one who can make things right for us. Repent and build a relationship with God. (This is the oil in your lamp.) He is so very definitely worth it!

The thing God wants most of all is your love. Your love is greater than all the treasure in Heaven to Him.

He wants your love so much He was willing to leave a clean, perfect place and come to a crude, dirty, imperfect, corrupt place. They didn’t even have plumbing or enough water. A being who had never even previously stubbed His toe, willingly submitted to allowing His ripped open back to be further abused and rubbed against slivers on the cross.

YOU are who He thought of while He was being tortured and killed on that cross. Thoughts of freely being given your love made it possible for Christ to go through what He did.

All other religions require you to do something for the so-called god. Jesus is the only God who died for people. The only God who gives rather than demanding receipt of tribute. All religions are NOT the same!

God Gives Us a Chance to Avoid Tribulation

There is one chance God could avoid the Tribulation. “I looked for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it. Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from his evil ways. Then I will relent and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done.”

“Listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you.

The Ten Commandments

Listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent you again and again, though you have not listened. Reform your ways and your actions and obey the Lord your God.”

God is holding everything momentarily suspended, teetering back and forth. We have this one final pause to make our final choice.

Genesis 18:17 Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do? (Before He destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

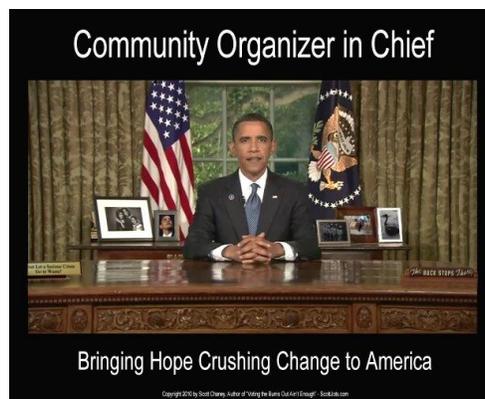

Shall I hide from the Bride of Christ what I am about to do? (Before the Rapture and Tribulation.)

It is time to do a Nehemiah. It is time to do some hair pulling in a final bid to reach those who are perishing. Think how incredulous people will be watching us from Hell. To know we could have saved them, but we were too polite and didn't want to embarrass ourselves, inconvenience ourselves, sacrifice our resources (the Lord's resources, actually) or risk offending them.

Otherwise, the gates will open and the revelation events will descend like a flood. There will be no more delays.

The Enemy is Inside the Gates

The enemy is not only at the gates. He is inside, sitting in the seat of power, setting up his network to control by force if necessary. ("He seems harmless at first, but isn't.")

Sometimes God Relents From Sending Disaster. He never brings judgment without giving people an opportunity to repent and change.

See the story of Jonah. "If at any time I announce that a disaster will happen, but the nation (earth) I warn repents, then I will relent and not inflict on it the disaster I had planned."

Sleeping Church

Revelation 3:4

But IF you do not wake up, I will come like a thief (referring to the rapture), and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

God baited and set a trap for the 4 end-times players. The antichrist, false prophet, EU and Mystery Babylon. We must close the trap before they escape.

Jeremiah 50:24-25 (right after it is talking about the “Hammer of the whole earth”, the antichrist). “I set a trap for you, O Babylon, (see President Obama’s role starting on page 5) and you were caught before you knew it. You were found and captured because you opposed the Lord.

The Lord has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Sovereign Lord Almighty has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.”

I see people searching for leaders to follow, someone honest and true. They look to Sarah Palin, Christine O’Donnell, Marco Rubio, Scott Brown, Glenn Beck, the Republican Party, Sean Hannity, Rush Limbaugh, Fox News or Mark Levin.

Sarah Palin’s undeserved loyalty to John McCain has left us with a RINO still entrenched. Christine O’Donnell showed poor judgment, Marco Rubio has already softened his stance on immigration and is being luke-warm to the tea party, Scott Brown is voting with Democrats far too often.

Glenn Beck is looking and sounding so good in his advocacy for God (except when he is mocking and scoffing at “birthers” and urging passive resistance to what is happening, and in his choice of a religion whose “worship of me is made up only of rules taught by men”). He is educating the country, bringing it to awareness and urging a return to God. But he has been associating with, and mentioning several times the man I believe to be the antichrist.

Too many Republican Party top tier people have decayed values, indulging in homosexuality and not opposing it or strengthening the family. They attack and refuse to support Tea Party backed candidates, like Karl Rove did to Christine O’Donnell. Some are calling the GOP the Gay Old Party. Now they have unleashed its eroding effects on our military.

Limbaugh, Beck and Hannity are all under the contractual control of Mitt Romney (Clear Channel) and Fox News. Romney almost sold 3Com to the Chinese. If Duncan Hunter R-CA had not stopped him, the Chinese would have gained access to Defense Department computer systems.

Fox is undergoing a conversion to the left. It is also controlled by Saudi Prince al-Waleed bin Talal, the 2nd largest stakeholder of Fox News behind Rupert Murdoch. Censorship of Muslim stories is firmly in place at Fox. Election result manipulation reporting is also firmly in place. Remember the long delay while they switched feeds during the Presidential primary, when Mike Huckabee surged.

And now, Rush Limbaugh and Mark Levin are referring to themselves as “I Am” (that is how God identifies himself to Israel).

These people, and many just like them, may seem like the best the earth has to offer, as far as leadership goes. We could do much worse. But all have problems or flaws. Any other people you turn your gaze to will also have or develop problems or flaws. This is just the latest crop, the latest round.

LOOK ONLY TO JESUS. KEEP YOUR EYES ONLY ON JESUS. All others will fail you.

Christians are barely beginning to prop up a tumbling wall, with a few holding their fingers in an ever increasing number of leaks. With the midterm elections, and some Russians and Israel temporarily stopping Iran from going nuclear, two reprieves have come.

We must ask Jesus to come and establish His Millennial Kingdom. Tell God we accept His plan for our salvation. If we don't, the alternative will be to leave the world to the fate of a horrible tribulation.

Evil never stops pushing forward to overwhelm.

This mess will keep happening, worse and worse each time, overwhelming us in the end...Unless Jesus comes and applies His ability to know men's hearts and minds, testing them for truth, falsehood and wickedness.

We will share that same skill as we share His throne and help Him reign. If we leave our heads in the sand and try to ignore what is happening, we will still have to face it when we come back to reign with Christ.

Just imagine the possibilities of a world set free to blossom and grow as God originally intended!

"Even now, return to me with all your heart, with weeping and mourning. Tear your hearts, not your clothes." "Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and He relents from sending calamity.

Who knows? He may turn and have pity and leave a blessing."

The story of Jonah could be a foretelling of disgruntled Christians getting some leaves dumped on their heads if they pout about tribulation disaster averted.
